Our latest projects in Spain and around Europe

Over the past year and a half, Robin has been involved in a wide range of projects both in Spain and across Europe.

From collaborations where our brand has been specified to other types of projects where our lighting solutions have played a key role in the design, our presence in the industry continues to grow. Each project reflects our commitment to democratizing decorative lighting in the contract sector, bringing style and character to unique spaces.

Show flat, Madrid Sastre&Sastre arquitectura

Products:
Rania floor
Rania wall

Sastre and Sastre offers urban planning and design services, providing comprehensive solutions that include environmental analysis, strategic planning, and urban design to create thriving communities.

They also equip various show apartments for property developers to market homes. For their latest project, they selected one of Robin's collections, incorporating two of our products: the Rania Wall and Rania Floor lamps, to bring a cozy and Mediterranean touch to the proposal presented in this show apartment.

Show apartments, Georgia DUO architects

Products:
Rio wall terracota

New work by DUO architects for an apartment in Tbilisi, Georgia. Our client's vision was to infuse the space with subtle terracotta accents against a backdrop of calming grey tones. The Rio Wall in terracotta brings a distinctive touch to the apartment, enhancing the concept's warmth

The result is a harmonious blend of warmth and sophistication, where earthy hues subtly contrast with the neutral palette, creating a refined and inviting atmosphere.

New apartment, Barcelona Cobijo studio

Products:

Rose pendant

Rudi pendant

This new project by Cobijo Studio in Barcelona tells its own story. It was an ongoing conversation between what already existed and what is yet to come. The design process for this space reflected a dynamic balance, blending the past with the future. Each element was carefully chosen to honor the existing structure while paving the way for a modern transformation.

The result is a harmonious fusion of tradition and innovation, offering a unique experience that evolves with time.
